

September 2019

Richard Macias's F9-F

We had a great September meeting. 31 members and guests came to the meeting. We had four guests. Welcome to all. They were Jose Lopez, Bryce Ory, David Collins and Ariel, Jose Patino's grandson. Roy Lingle was absent and he hardly ever misses a meeting. No business was conducted.

Jim Davis's AD-4W

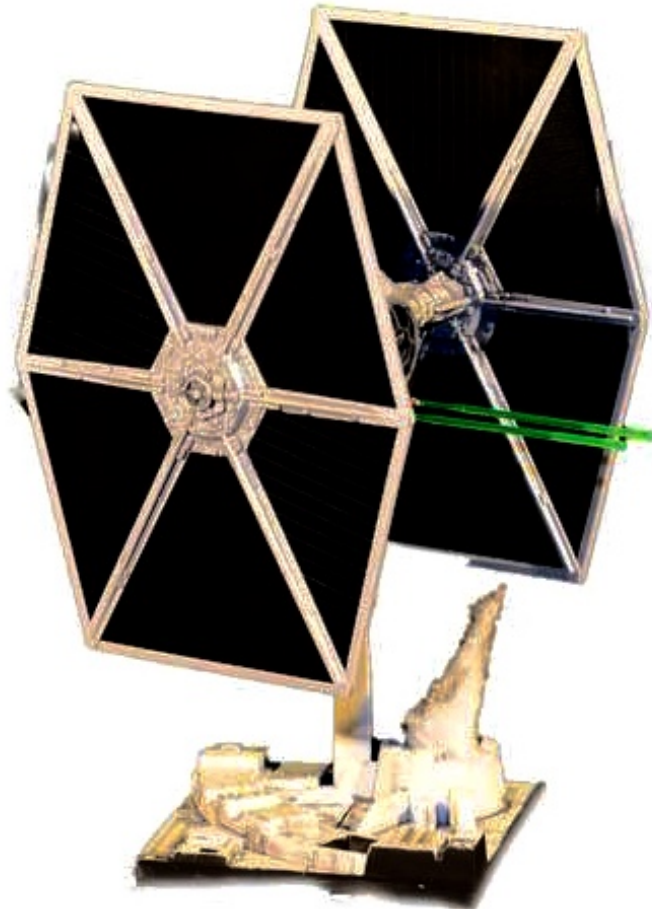

Arthur Berdick's M1296 "Stryker"

David Collins brought several models to show. He was the most prolific modeler at the meeting. His work was very well received by all and he got a lot of well-deserved nice comments from those at the meeting.

Dixi Fischer's scratch-built Doll House Bed

Our next meeting is on Sunday, October 6, 7000 Edgemere at 2:00.

David Collon's TIE Fighter

More of David Collin's Sci-Fi models

Steve Herren's Brig "Siren"

Phoenix Villa donated a couple of models for the door prize stash.

Gustav Hebrok also donated five kits for the stash. No door prize tickets were sold as we had no tickets to use.

Justin Segovia's DD

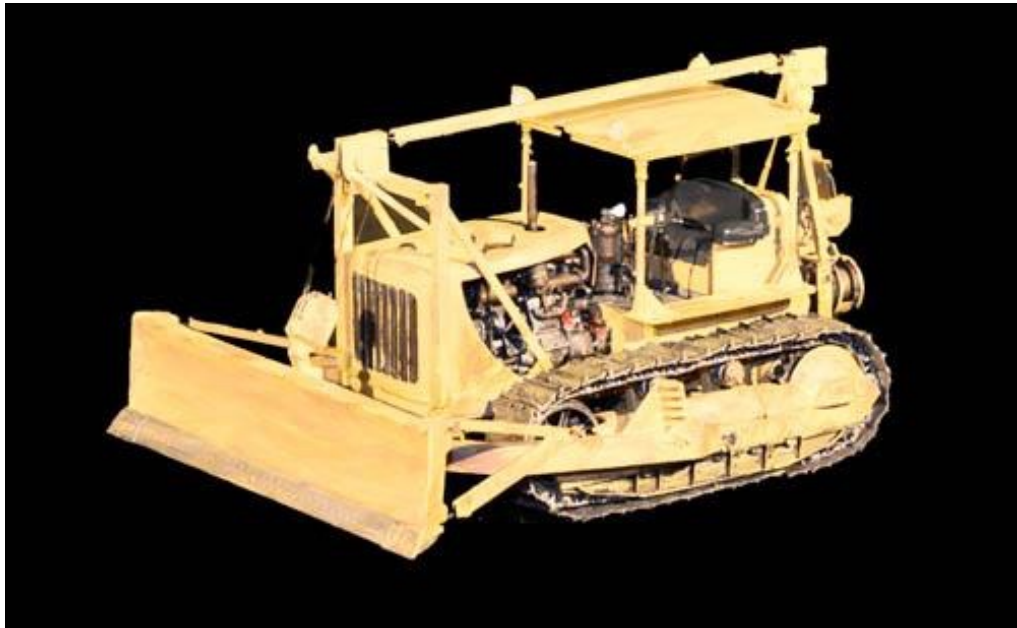

Salvador Samaniego's AD-4 WIP

Tom Delgado's "Hind"

Tom Delgado's A-4 below

Art Berdick's Bulldozer D-7

Art Berdick's "Cougar" 6x6 E.O.D.

Justin Segovia's Pacific Landing

Art Berdick's M1117 Guardian

Phoenix Villa's F-84

Maybe Juan Patino's F-5

On the Tables:

Jim Davis had a 1/72nd scale Sword AD-4W Skyraider from VC-12 assigned to the USS Coral Sea CVA-43 circa 1950.

Richard Macias brought a Hasegawa Grumman F9F-2 "Panther" In 1/72nd scale.

Tom Delgado had a 1/48th scale "Hind" Russian helicopter by Revell and an A-4 Skyhawk in 1/48th scale also by Revell.

On the Tables (con't):

Justin Segovia had two 1/700th scale items to show. One was the USS Colahan DD658, a Fletcher class destroyer and a small diorama of an invasion force attacking a beach in the PTO. He had several un-built models spread out on the table to show.

Dixi Fischer had a 1/12th scale Modern Dollhouse bed made from cherry wood and was scratch built by Dixi.

Phoenix Villa brought a 1/48th scale F-84 built from the Tamiya model. He also had a Lego M-551 Sheridan.

Juan Patino brought a model of an F-5E in an Aggressor scheme. No information given.

David Collins bought twelve items to show. Six were Science Fiction items from the movie series "Star Wars." These included the following; in 1/48th scale: A Bandi model ATST as captured by the Soviets and a Bandi Snowspeeder. In 1/144th scale, he had a Bandi X Wing fighter, a Y wing fighter, a Snowspeeder and a TIE Fighter. All were very well done. His other models included a Hobby Boss 1/48th scale Me 262 in custom markings, a Tamiya 1/48th Spitfire, a Tamiya 1/48th scale Sherman M4A3(76), a 1/72nd scale Tamiya A6M2 type 0, a 1/72nd scale E-100 German heavy tank and a 1/7nd scale battle at Antietam diorama. His efforts were well appreciated by the membership. No intimidation for this first-time visitor to one of our meetings. We are glad you decided to come and hope you will continue to do so.

Arthur Berdick brought four 1/35th scale models to show. Art had a Hobby Boss M1117 Guardian Armored Security Vehicle, a Panda Models M196 "Stryker", A Panda Models "Cougar" 6 x 6 Rapid Response Vehicle, and Mini-Art D-7 Bulldozer.

Thanks to Steve Herren for the photos and his wife Bea for chauffeuring Steve and helping with the photo set up. Thanks to Michael Kennedy for his photos taken after Steve left the meeting.

Apologies to Jim Davis for not using his P-47 pair taken at the August meeting. I could not get the color to do justice to his efforts.
