

October 2025

Efrain Zamora's AMT 1958 Plymouth Fury "Christine"

Our October meeting was well attended with about thirty guest and members in attendance. It was great to see Lisa and Jack Callaway at the meeting. Thanks, Lisa for bringing Jack. Arthur Berdick and Dixi Fischer were also back after being absent at the last meeting due to health concerns. Nice to see you both.

We had several outstanding models to admire and photograph. Thanks to Michael Kennedy for the photos again this month.

Once again, I did not nominate our membership for any of the IPMS Region 6 awards. We were not invited to send any to Region 10. If you have concerns about me not following through with this, please ask me about it.

I think that as a club, we are promoting modeling in our area. We have held three model displays for each of the last three years and have recruited several new members by giving these displays. As we normally don't have contest, we do not promote one-upmanship among our members. All are welcome to attend our meetings and have your models photographed, identified and commented on provided you give me the information on the photo sheet. As the editor of the newsletter, I try to feature different categories of models and vary the builders, so the same person doesn't end up on the front page of the newsletter. However, as the editor I try feature quality work on the title page.

Our next display is on November 15, a Saturday at Basset Place Mall, Traditionally, we have called this display the Veteran's Day Event as we have given this display more than twenty - five years. If you wish to display, check with Mike Garcia or Hector Gonzalez, as you will need to sign a form in order to participate.

David Torres's Fine Molds 1/35th scale Type 89 Otsu Tank

David used the Vallejo IJA 1939-1945 paint set on this model. He weathered it with Tamiya Panel liner, Vallejo pigments and pastel chalks. This model represents a tank that took part in the battle of “KahlKhin Gol” in 1939 against the Soviets in Mongolia. The tank commander is a Warriors resin figure. Eventually this model will be a part of a diorama.

David Torres's Fine Molds 1/35th scale Type 94 TK

This model was painted and weathered with the same materials as on page 9. This model doesn't have the yellow out lines as not all of the Japanese tanks used them. This model will be used in a diorama as well., with a Miniart base and Finemold figures. The commander of this tank is from the MiniArt Japanese Tank Crew set.

Joe Martinez's Tamiya 1/35th scale Sturmgeschütz III B

Joe added handles to the hatches. He added headphones with cables to the Commander. The figures on the Stug III are from Panzer Art. The figure on the ground with the cats is from the Dynamo rage. The driver's hand is from his spares box. The fence and bench were from Miniart. The jug and shovel came from his spares box. Joe replaced the tow cable with one from his spares box. Joe used Lifecolor acrylic for the Panzer Grey and weathered the vehicle with oils and pastels.
